

Why Politics Matter for Young Professionals

Join young professionals across Western Mass for an evening of networking with and information
featuring Maggie Bergin:

Maggie Bergin is the principal for The Art of Politics, a government affairs consulting company. The Art of Politics pushes policies and projects forward by identifying federal and state funding opportunities, successfully pitching projects, designing winning communication strategies, and following through like nobody's business.

Maggie is also a 2009 Business West "40 Under 40" Recipient.
